

1 JUSTICE COURT, LAS VEGAS TOWNSHIP
2 CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

3 2011 JUN 28 P 2:55

4 ORDER RESCINDING
5 ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
6 #2005—CRIM—1

JUSTICE COURT
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 11-06
BY _____ DEPUTY

7
8 WHEREAS, in 2005, the judges of the Las Vegas Justice Court entered Administrative 9 Order #2005—Crim—1; and

10 WHEREAS, this Order declared that “if no [criminal] case is instituted against a
11 defendant who has been admitted to bail, the bail will be automatically exonerated after 120 days
12 has elapsed from the day the bond or undertaking was posted;” and

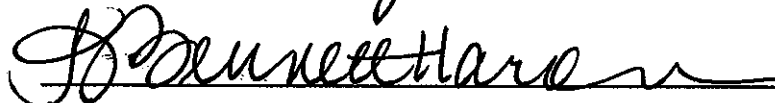

13
14 WHEREAS, the Order further provided that “a defendant may request that bail be
15 exonerated before expiration of the 120-day period, but these requests will be resolved on a case-
16 by-case basis by the appropriate judge”; and

17
18 WHEREAS, the judges of the Las Vegas Justice Court have now determined that
19 automatic exonerated of bail bonds is no longer necessary, due to changes in case scheduling
20 procedures and innovations in court technology; therefore,

21 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Administrative Order #2005—Crim—1 is rescinded; 22 and.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each request for bond exonerated will continue to be
24 considered by the judge assigned to the specific criminal case.

25
26 Dated this 28 day of June, 2011.

27
28

Karen Bennett-Haron, CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE PEACE